

M.S.A.D. No. 75 GRADE 8 DISTRICT REPORT CARD

Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP)

- By 2014, NCLB requires all students to be "proficient."
- The State has established a series of targets over the next nine years leading to 100% proficiency.
- Maine uses the Maine Educational Assessment (MEA) as the measure; a student must "meet" or "exceed" the standard to be "proficient."
- By year's end, all core subject teachers are expected to be "highly qualified."

Grade 8 State Proficiency Targets for 2005-06:

Reading
46% of students meet or exceed the standard

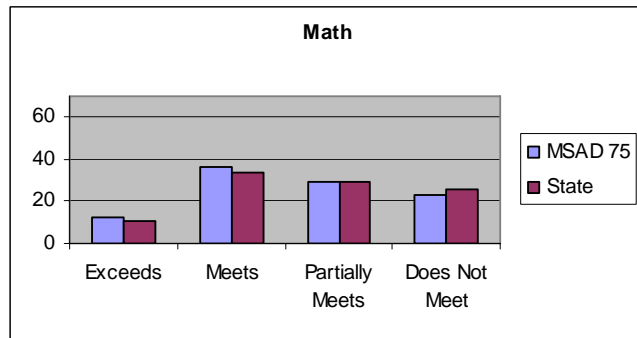

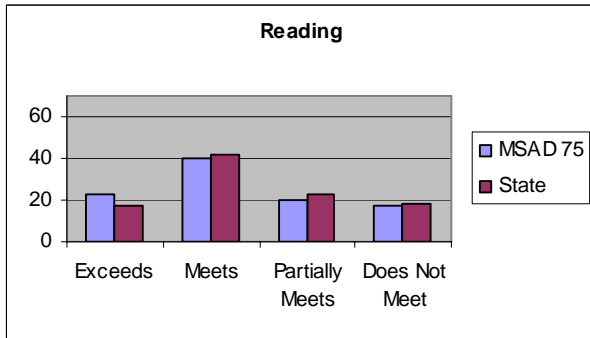

Math
28% of students meet or exceed the standard

Did eighth grade make AYP for 2005-06? NO

Percent of eighth graders tested: 100%

Number of eighth graders tested: 249

Grade 8 Student Achievement by Proficiency Level:

52 students are identified as economically disadvantaged.

63 students are listed as identified disability.

District Staff Qualifications:

Highest degree earned: BA – 16 MA – 13

Percent temporary qualifications: 7% (2 people)

Percent of classes not taught by a highly qualified teacher: 9.4%